Captain Adelaide Zedler, a veteran of the Earth / Raykar war has flown countless missions and survived her last.

She now has to pick up the pieces and navigate within her family business that delivers cargo throughout the known galaxy. Little does she know this will lead to her biggest battles yet.

Family tensions, a missing sibling and the threat of ferocious man-eating aliens complicate her plans and could very well drive Adelaide insane. She must fight on every front to save the family company and keep her brother alive from the threat of a fanatical crime lord. Don't forget about the crazy alien stalker bent on making her his bride.

Join Adelaide on her ship The ZOO as she ricochets around known space. Rising to meet the challenge of a race from the past that is emerging from the shadows in a bid for galaxy supremacy. They can only be defeated if the various species can set aside their conflicts and fight together.

authoryvonne

@yyourkowski

yvonnemysteries.com